OPERATION WRITE HOME

For Keeps Sake supports our nation's armed forces by sending blank handmade greeting cards. These cards are then sent to troops so they may write home, send a birthday card or anniversary wish to their loved ones.

We have a merry band of cardmakers who regularly gather at For Keeps Sake to make cards for this worthy cause. Care packages filled with hundreds of handmade cards are then sent to our contacts, restocking every 6-8 weeks. Each box is packed with great care, alternating styles and colors.

Our own Mary Meyer hosts this event in the For Keeps Sake classroom. We hope you can join Mary (who, by the way, creates a fabulous party atmosphere!) to make someone's day with a handmade card.

We hope you can join Mary Saturday, November 12 (anytime between 10 am and 4 pm) for this event. Stop by and make a card (or several) for the troops over this Veteran's Day Weekend.

PS: If you prefer to make cards for the troops at home, For Keeps Sake is a drop off station for Operation Write Home.

EXCLUSIVE FOR KEEPS SAKE PAGE KITS

By popular demand, For Keeps Sake's designers have joined forces to create exclusive page kits just for you! With six different designers, there are themes, papers and embellishments that will satisfy everyone's taste. The layouts are designed in a 12x12 format and would sell anywhere from $15 - $20 elsewhere. For Keeps Sake offers these kits from $9.99 to $12.99 - and most are two page layouts.

Come in and see what we've designed for you - from puppy dogs to cooking to Disney to travel and more! And, because these are popular, when we're out of one design, we move on to another. So get here fast for the best selection. New designs each month for your scrapbooking pleasure!
